

Appartamento Lillà A five minute walk from the historic center of Panicale, in a large stone and brick house dating back to 1789, apartment on the ground floor with independent entrance and large enclosed terrace of exclusive ownership. You walk into a living room with fireplace and kitchenette, from here there are two separate sleeping areas: the first consisting of corridor, double bedroom, single bedroom with French window onto the terrace, bathroom and closet. The second sleeping area is made up of a large double bedroom with open view over the valley and high ceilings, bathroom and a spacious corridor area.

