Il Pozzo This beautiful apartment is located on the ground floor of a charmin building in the historic center of Paciano, right in front of an old medieval well. The apartment is about 70 square meters and consists of a living room with fireplace and kitchenette, single bedroom, double bedroom and bathroom with shower. The first thing that hits you when you walk into the living room is the very high ceiling with exposed beams and the skilful renovation work that highlights the exposed stone and characteristic elements. The roof and facade of the building were redone at the end of 2022.
