Aurora Located in the historic center of Panicale, one of Italy's most beautiful medieval villages, we offer for sale a unique apartment on the second and top floor of a charming period building. This property perfectly blends historic character with sophisticated contemporary style. The entrance opens into a spacious, light-filled living room with kitchen corner, boasting a prime south-facing exposure that ensures abundant natural light throughout the day. The main floor also features a comfortable master bedroom and a stylishly finished bathroom.
